

2017 Yorkville Foxes 8U Travel Baseball Try-Outs

Who:

- Any player interested in playing more competitive baseball
- As of April 30th 2017, must be 8 years old or younger

What Travel Baseball Consists of:

- Forming a great bond with teammates and the game. We will focus on the fundamentals and teach proper technique, etiquette, and love for the game
- We practice roughly 20-25 times before the season begins
- The regular season consists of 18 regular season games on weekday evenings with a few scrimmage games thrown in
- We will also participate in 3 or 4 local tournaments (within an hour drive) consisting of a minimum of 3 games each on tournament weekends
- Additional practices will be held throughout the season

When & Where:

- Friday June 17th 6:30-8:30pm Beecher Field #3
- Saturday June 18th 8:30-10:30am Autumn Creek
 - o Either one day or the other, whichever day is convenient for you and your player. If you cannot make either day, please contact one of the coaches and we can setup an evaluation by appointment

Why:

- The Yorkville Foxes are the only ALL Yorkville travel team run through YYBSA and are the feeder program for YHS
- We have access to great facilities that are utilized in the off-season and winter months to keep the players sharp
- Our overall goal is to help the kids become better ball players while making sure they still have fun and don't get burnt out during the process
